

Curriculum Vitae

Romantiez Sahat Basana Matondang MD. Graduates from Radiology Residency Program in University of Indonesia, Jakarta at 2009, followed by Fellowship on Abdominal Imaging and Interventional Radiology in Hyogo University and Oita University, Japan and Seoul National University, South Korea from 2011 to 2012. I am active as a Head of Urogenital Sub Division of Abdominal Imaging Division and as an Abdominal Interventional Radiologist in Interventional Radiologist Division at Cipto Mangunkusumo Hospital -University of Indonesia. I am also active as a member of Asia Pacific Abdominal Radiology, Executive Member of Indonesian Oncology Association Jakarta Branch , Executive member of Indonesian Hepato-Pancreas Biliary Association, Executive member of Indonesian Renal Oncology, Executive member of Indonesian Colorectal Association, Executive member of Indonesia Transplantation Association and Executive member of Indonesian Abdominal Radiology. My field of interest is hepatobiliary and pancreatic imaging and interventional abdominal radiology. Specific areas of research interests include differentiation of liver tumors, hepatobiliary contrast agents, and interventional oncology. I am also wrote several national and international books and publications in liver and colorectal disease.